

Privacy Policy

At Naxos Development we are committed to protecting your privacy. You can navigate through our site without giving us any information about yourself.

Occasionally, we need information from you in order to provide the services you request. Information is requested for Forum and Newsletter subscription or for logging onto our website as a registered user.

Collecting your Personal Information

We will ask you when we need the information that personally identifies you (personal information) or allows us to contact you. This information is requested when you are asked to register for Forum, Newsletter or any other type of subscription. Personal information collected by us is usually limited to name, e-mail address, country or location, but we may on occasion request additional information when providing a particular service that you request. When you buy and install a new product from one of our resellers you may be required to enter your personal details. When you do so, we store this registration information in a file together with any other information you have already given us on previous visits to our website or at the time of a previous purchase. This is considered your personal profile.

Control of your Personal Details

When you register, or otherwise give us personal information, Naxos Development will not share the information with third parties for any reason, other than for the limited exceptions already listed. It will only be used for the purposes stated above.

Naxos Development never shares your information with other companies, regardless of the products or services that they offer.

Naxos Development may send out periodic e-mails informing you of technical service issues related to a product or service you have purchased from us.

Use of your Personal Information

We use your personal information primarily for the following purposes:

- to facilitate your search for our products, services or information at Naxos Development

- to inform you about product upgrades, special offers, updated information and any other new services Naxos Development has on offer

Naxos Development will only disclose your personal information, should it be required by law or when such action is necessary to conform to the edicts of the law or comply with legal processes concerning the protection/defense of Naxos Development property/rights.

Access to your Personal Information

Access to your information is completely restricted to qualified personnel at Naxos Development who are sworn to secrecy (except in the cases indicated above).

Security of your Personal Information

Naxos Development strictly protects the security of your personal information and honors your choices for its intended use. We carefully protect your data from loss, misuse, unauthorized access or disclosure, alteration, or destruction. Inside Naxos Development, data is stored in password-controlled server and data management applications with limited & restricted access.

You also have a significant role in protecting your information. No one can request or receive your personal information without knowing your product license key (serial number), so remember not to share it with others.

Contact Naxos Development at [info \[at\] naxosdev \[dot\] com](mailto:info@naxosdev.com) for your comments and questions regarding this Statement of Privacy.
